HV1 and HV2 have the Hyper-V server role installed. Server1 is a file server that contains 3 TB of free disk space.

HV1 hosts a virtual machine named VM1. The virtual machine configuration file for VM1 is stored in D:\VM and the virtual hard disk file is stored in E:\VHD.

You plan to replace drive E with a larger volume.

You need to ensure that VM1 remains available from HV1 while drive E is being replaced. You want to achieve this goal by using the minimum amount of administrative effort.

What should you do?

Explanation:

One of the great new features coming in Windows Server 2012 is Storage Migration for Hyper-V. Storage Migration allows an administrator to relocate the source files that make up a virtual machine to another location without any downtime. Storage Migration creates a copy of the file or files at the new location. Once that is finished, Server 2012 does a final replication of changes and then the virtual machine uses the files in the new location.

NEW QUESTION: 4

Scenario: You are configuring an Azure Active Directory (AAD) application. The application needs to access a resource that is protected by a Microsoft Entra ID Conditional Access (CA) policy. The CA policy is configured to require users to be members of a specific group. The application is configured to use the following CA policy:

```

User3 is a member of Group1 and Group2.
Group2 is a member of Group1.
User3 is the owner of Group1.
So User3 can review both Group 1 and 2.
But for review the scope says only Guest.
Solution:
User1 is a member not a guest so 1st statement ==> NO

```

Answer:

Explanation:

Explanation

In the Users section, specify the users that the access review applies to. Access reviews can be for the members of a group or for users who were assigned to an application. You can further scope the access review to review only the guest users who are members (or assigned to the application), rather than reviewing all the users who are members or who have access to the application.

Present Use Case:

Group2 is a member of Group1 and User3 is the owner of Group1
So User3 can review both Group 1 and 2.

But for review the scope says only Guest.

Solution:

User1 is a member not a guest so 1st statement ==> NO

UserA is member not the guest so 2nd statement ==> No

UserB is a guest so 3rd statement ==> Yes
